HUMAN RESOURCES
SOERADJI TIRTONEGORO HOSPITAL

Soeradji Tirtonegoro Hospital is one of the hospitals owned by the Indonesian Ministry of Health and aims to be a progressive and innovative healthcare provider in Indonesia. Soeradji Tirtonegoro's medical team—comprising 25 general practitioners, 110 specialist doctors, and 500 nurses, allied health professionals, and support staff—delivers nationally recognized healthcare services to nearly two million patients annually.

With equal access to medical care in Indonesia still a challenge, Soeradji Tirtonegoro's business strategy enables the hospital to operate at a lower cost by leveraging economies of scale. As a result, the hospital increases affordability for people from all socio-economic backgrounds and provides access to quality and affordable healthcare throughout Indonesia.

The hospital's vision of international quality, wide reach, large scale, and godly compassion forms the foundation for Soeradji Tirtonegoro to respond to the dynamic social transformation taking place in Indonesia.
